

Quick Bits February 2017

DAY 128

"I enjoy volunteering because I like working with the amazing range of skills on this island. Much is accomplished through teamwork. I believe that volunteers influence/determine the kind of community we live in and the entire community benefits"

Conrad Pilon, The Salt Spring Farmers' Heritage Foundation

150 DAYS, 150 VOLUNTEERS, 150 ORGANIZATIONS

Are You Tracking
Hours?
Let Us Know!!

Island Savings presents volunteer awards to celebrate community leadership for Canada
150 <https://www.islandavings.ca/Personal/Community/SimpleGenerosity/>

Expanding the Conversation on Governance and the BC Societies Act

Friday March 10th, 2017

9:30-11:30

ArtSpring Multipurpose Room

Cost: $35.00/Participant

DEADLINE TO REGISTER:

THURSDAY MARCH 2ND, 2017

S.W.O.V.A
WOMEN AS VOLUNTEERS AS CHANGEMAKERS "Tapas and Treats" Event Wednesday March
8th, 2017 7:00pm-
9:00pm ArtSpring Tickets
$25 Available at ArtSpring Box
Office.

Island Comfort Quilts joins the campaign by calling for 150 Volunteers for their annual quilting bee
Sunday March 12, 2017

LOOKING FOR FUNDS?

Research Funding Sources with One Easy Tool
GrantConnect
$25/Year
Available at VCR

LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS?

POST YOUR OPPORTUNITIES WITH US!

VOLUNTEER AS A FAMILY?

"The Value of Volunteering: Games, Toys and Play"

By Janine Fernandes-Hayden

Island Parent Magazine

February 2017